Federal Bar Association Brown BAG CLE: Commemorating the 150th Anniversary of the Passage of the 14th Amendment

150 years have passed since the 14th amendment to the U.S. Constitution was ratified on July 9, 1868, granting all citizens equal protection under the law and forbidding the deprivation of life, liberty or property without due process of the law.

Come hear about the important history of this amendment and how it is still relevant today. Presentation led by Katherine Macfarlane, Associate Professor, University of Idaho College of Law.

Lunch will be provided compliments of Hawley Troxell Ennis & Hawley.
