Stephen W. Kenyon Selected as Clerk of Court

BOISE – Chief District Judge B. Lynn Winmill and Chief Bankruptcy Judge Terry L. Myers are pleased to announce that the judges of the United States District and Bankruptcy Courts for the District of Idaho have selected Stephen W. Kenyon to serve as the Clerk of Court, effective Monday, June 19, 2017. The District of Idaho consists of 44 counties and is home to approximately 1.7 million residents. The federal courts in Idaho currently have one district judge, one senior district judge, two bankruptcy judges, two magistrate judges and one recalled magistrate judge.

Stephen W. Kenyon was raised in Boise, Idaho, graduated from Idaho State University and received his law degree from the University of Idaho. He is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the Idaho State Bar. Mr. Kenyon comes to us from the Idaho Supreme Court and Court of Appeals where he served as the Clerk of Courts since January, 2005. Mr. Kenyon and his wife Teuila have four children and live in Boise.

Chief Judge Winmill stated that, “We are delighted to have Steve join the federal court. With his extensive experience in public and judicial administration, his legal and accounting training, his familiarity with the judicial and legal traditions of our state, and as a life-long Idahoan, we are confident that he will make a great and long-lasting contribution to the District and Bankruptcy Courts in the District of Idaho.”

As Clerk of Court, Mr. Kenyon will report directly to Chief District Judge Winmill and Chief Bankruptcy Judge Myers as well as the other judges of the District of Idaho. The clerk of court leads an office of some 44 employees who provide a wide variety of service to members of the court community and the public at large. His duties include, but are not limited to, managing the courts’ budget and information technology, its space and facilities, and the staff responsible for the docketing and processing of civil, criminal, and bankruptcy cases, jury services, and courtroom operations. In addition, he will be responsible for overseeing public ceremonies and events, supervising the court's human resources functions, and will serve as the court's public information officer.

Mr. Kenyon stated, "As a public servant I'm honored to be selected, and I will do my best to carry on the great reputation of the U.S. District and Bankruptcy Courts of Idaho."
