

Procedural Orders

A procedural order based on a standardized form is entered at a defendant's initial appearance by the magistrate judge. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, procedural orders are not entered in petty offense cases. No scheduling conference is held.