

Sealed Information

- A request to seal must be made by motion and accompanied by supporting briefing and a proposed order.
- Court will order sealing where appropriate.
- At arraignments, if pretrial services reports are admitted as evidence, they are automatically sealed.
- Financial affidavits are automatically sealed.
- Search warrants require a motion and proposed order to seal, if a party seeks to have the warrant sealed.