IN THE MATTER OF AMENDING)
THE JURY SELECTION PLAN FOR) THE DISTRICT OF IDAHO)

GENERAL ORDER NO. 82

This matter coming before the court upon the recommendation of the Clerk of Court; and

The court having previously instructed the clerk to eliminate the addresses and telephone numbers of jurors on the jury biographical forms before releasing information to the bar and members of the public; and

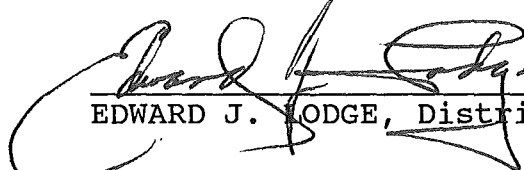

The court being fully informed that the jurors' right to privacy is an important right;

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that paragraph S, on page 11 of the Jury Selection Plan and General Order No. 67, dated August 24, 1990, is hereby AMENDED as follows:

No sooner than seven (7) days in advance of trial, the names and biographical information, excluding street address, home and work telephone numbers, and Social Security numbers, of persons impanelled for that trial drawn from the qualified jury wheel may be made public, provided that any district judge in a case where the interest of justice so requires may order that the names be kept confidential until the time of voir dire examination.

DATED this 14 day of May, 1992.
