District Local Rule Civ 83.3 (Civil)

SECURITY IN THE COURTHOUSE

The Court, or any judge, may from time to time make such orders or impose such requirements as may be reasonably necessary to assure the security of the Court and of all persons in attendance. To the extent deemed necessary, the Court or judge may coordinate any orders relating to the security of the Court and public with the U.S. Marshal’s Service.

RELATED AUTHORITY

None