

Melissa Luna

Melissa Luna is a graduate of Whittier College in Southern California, Lewis and Clark Law School in Portland, Oregon and holds advanced degrees in sociology from New York University and higher education administration from Ohio University. Admitted to legal practice in Idaho in 2005, she has practiced both civil and criminal law during her career. In 2015, Ms. Luna joined Landeck and Forseth, P.C., in Moscow, Idaho. In 2018, the firm began operating as Landeck × Forseth × Luna, Attorneys at Law. Ms. Luna's practice primarily includes employment law, family law and estate administration matters. She has developed and conducted discrimination-harassment trainings and conducted investigations for employers since 2010. Ms. Luna also assists employees address discrimination and harassment complaints in the workplace. Ms. Luna has completed investigation training by the Association of Workplace Investigators and ATIXA. A former ADA Coordinator, Ms. Luna has been a member of the ISB's Reasonable Accommodation Committee for bar exam test-takers since 2015. Ms. Luna has been a member of the Governing Council for the ISB Employment and Labor Section since 2015 and serves as Vice President of the Section this year.