

Peter Wucetich

Pete Wucetich is an Assistant U.S. Attorney. He previously worked at the Idaho Attorney General's Office in the civil division. Before coming to Idaho, he was an attorney in California and was a partner at a firm that specialized in employment law, a shareholder at a regional firm based out of Newport Beach, and an associate at national firms. His practice has focused on business, employment, and intellectual property litigation, as well as constitutional torts.