Jerry R. Myers

Jerry R. Meyers, Meyers Mediation & Law, is a thirty-five year practitioner either as an attorney or judge. He practiced eleven years in Pocatello with his brother Jay before being appointed to the bench in the Seventh Judicial District. He spent seventeen years in the judiciary before returning to private practice. His focus since leaving the bench has been mediations and representing injured persons/families in catastrophic personal injury cases. He has mediated over 1,300 cases in his practice. Since April 2020 he has conducted approximately 173 Zoom Mediations.

Jerry recently finished his term servicing as chairman of the Idaho Fish & Game Commission. He and his wife reside in North Fork and share a passion for riding and training mules. They proudly share ten children.