

L. Jeff Severson

Jeff Severson is Chief Deputy Clerk for the United States District and Bankruptcy Court for the District of Idaho. An Idaho native, Jeff received his undergraduate degree from the University of California, Davis, and his law degree from the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University. Upon graduation from law school, Jeff clerked for Judge B. Lynn Winmill in the District of Idaho, and later practiced law as a criminal defense attorney for the Federal Defenders of Eastern Washington and Idaho, and as a civil litigator in the Boise office of Stoel Rives. In 2005, Jeff returned to the District of Idaho as a Career Law Clerk for Judge Winmill. He became Chief Deputy Clerk for the District in 2018.