

Sheila Schwager

Sheila Schwager is co-chair of the Creditors Rights/Bankruptcy practice group and focuses her practice on creditor rights and bankruptcy, including the representation of consumer and commercial lenders involving the Uniform Commercial Code, Federal and State lending laws, agricultural issues, foreclosures, collections, workouts, the defense of lender liability claims, bankruptcy, and the defense of preference actions. She has experience with State and Federal consumer protection laws on behalf of creditors, including Federal and State telemarketing laws, credit reports, Fair Debt Collection Procedure Act, and loan workouts. She also participates in litigation and trials in California and has appeared before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.